These comments would also be made available to the public but not before the expiration of 30 months from the priority date.

Within 19 months from the priority date, but only in respect of some designated Offices, a demand for international preliminary examination must be filed if the applicant wishes to postpone the entry into the national phase until 30 months from the priority date (in some Offices even later); otherwise, the applicant must, within 20 months from the priority date, perform the prescribed acts for entry into the national phase before those designated Offices.

In respect of other designated Offices, the time limit of 30 months (or later) will apply even if no demand is filed within 19 months.

5. Additional comments:

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE
INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.
PCT/US04/09796

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-23	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims NONE	YES
	Claims 1-23	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-23	YES
	Claims NONE	NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-23 lack an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over what is well known in the betting art as "Parimutuel betting" as is disclosed by Wikipedia and was invented in 1865.

For claims 1,5,8,11-14, in Parimutuel betting all bets of a particular type are placed together in a pool and payoff odds are calculated by sharing the pool among all bets. The receipt of a 1st bet is inherent to betting. The claimed first quote is the amount of the bet. For this kind of betting the results of events are received and the amount of a payout is determined after the bets are made. Not disclosed is that the first quote related to a total number of points that a participant may earn in a plurality of events. It is well known in the art of betting that one can place a bet on the total number of points that a NASCAR driver may earn in a championship event (such as the championship event formerly known as the Winston Cup series). Las Vegas has for a long time been taking bets on how many points a driver will earn for the season and who will win the championship. In a general sense, one can bet on just about anything. It is also known that one can be on how many points a football team will score in each of the 4 quarters (events) of a football game, as well as the total number of points for the game. Betting on how many points a participant will earn is nothing new and is what happens with the NASCAR championship series. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use a parimutuel betting system for the betting of the number of points a NASCAR driver will earn for the season. The number of points is the claimed total number of units that the participant can earn. NASCAR has a plurality of events, which are the various races throughout the season.

For claims 2,6,7 the providing of an upper index and a lower index is what is known as providing an over or under for points. One can bet that the total points will be over the over/under number, or can bet that the points will be under the over/under number. The over is a number and the under is a number. It would have been obvious to use the over/under scheme of betting with Parimutuel betting as this is a very well known form of betting.

For claim 3,4, while not disclosed by the reference, to have one bet on how much money one may earn over the course of a season, or to be on horse jockeys, is obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. As stated previously, one can place a bet on just about anything. To claim a specific type or kind of event that the bet is placed on is something that is obvious and that involves no more than ordinary skill in the art.

For claims 9,10, this claim is reciting the act of taking a bet after the Winston Cup series has started, something that is also obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. One can place a bet at any time as long as the bet taker is willing to take the bet.

For claims 15-23, to simply use computers to automate the process of taking bets and processing the payouts is obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. This is just using modern computers to assist in what would otherwise be a manual process. Automation of a previously recognized as manual process is obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220

These Notes are intended to give the basic instructions concerning the filing of amendments under Article 19. The Notes are based on the requirements of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations and the Administrative Instructions under that Treaty. In case of discrepancy between these Notes and those requirements, the latter are applicable. For more detailed information, see also the PCT Applicant's Guide, a publication of WIPO.

In these Notes, "Article," "Rule" and "Section" refer to the provisions of the PCT, the PCT Regulations and the PCT Administrative Instructions, respectively.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING AMENDMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 19

The applicant has, after having received the international search report and the written opinion of the International Searching Authority, one opportunity to amend the claims of the international application. It should however be emphasized that, since all parts of the international application (claims, description and drawings) may be amended during the international preliminary examination procedure, there is usually no need to file amendments of provisional protection or has another except where, e.g. the applicant wants the latter to be published for the purposes of provisional protection or has another reason for amending the claims before international publication. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that provisional protection is available in some States only (see PCT Applicant's Guide, Volume I/A, Annexes B1 and B2).

The attention of the applicant is drawn to the fact that amendments to the claims under Article 19 are not allowed where the International Searching Authority has declared, under Article 17(2), that no international search report would be established (see PCT Applicant's Guide, Volume I/A, paragraph 296).

What parts of the international application may be amended ?

Under Article 19, only the claims may be amended.

During the international phase, the claims may also be amended (or further amended) under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority. The description and drawings may only be amended under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority.

Upon entry into the national phase, all parts of the international application may be amended under Article 28 or, where applicable, Article 41.

When ? Within 2 months from the date of transmittal of the international search report or 16 months from the priority date, whichever time limit expires later. It should be noted, however, that the amendments will be considered as having been received on time if they are received by the International Bureau after the expiration of the applicable time limit but before the completion of the technical preparations for international publication (Rule 46.1).

Where not to file the amendments ?

The amendments may only be filed with the International Bureau and not with the receiving Office or the International Searching Authority (Rule 46.2).

Where a demand for international preliminary examination has been/is filed, see below.

How ? Either by cancelling one or more entire claims, by adding one or more new claims or by amending the text of one or more of the claims as filed.

A replacement sheet must be submitted for each sheet of the claims which, on account of an amendment or amendments, differs from the sheet originally filed.

All the claims appearing on a replacement sheet must be numbered in Arabic numerals. Where a claim is cancelled, no renumbering of the other claims is required. In all cases where claims are renumbered, they must be renumbered consecutively (Section 205(b)).

The amendments must be made in the language in which the international application is to be published.

What documents must/may accompany the amendments ?

Letter (Section 205(b)):

The amendments must be submitted with a letter.

The letter will not be published with the international application and the amended claims. It should not be confused with the "Statement under Article 19(1)" (see below, under "Statement under Article 19(1)").

The letter must be in English or French, at the choice of the applicant. However, if the language of the international application is English, the letter must be in English; if the language of the international application is French, the letter must be in French.
